SKELETON MAY BE THAT OF WOMAN WHO MET WITH FOUL PLAY, THEN LEFT ALONG RIVER BANK AT EDGELY

Description Released by Coroner J. Alfred Rigby in Hope of Identifying the Victim — Left Arm Missing and Two Holes in Head, Made, Apparently, by Surgical Instruments.

A seven-state teletype broadcast has been sent out by police and Bucks County Coroner J. Alfred Rigby in an effort to have the skeleton found at Edgely, Saturday, identified.

The skeleton, upon further examination, proved to be that of a woman thought to be in her 30's. Bucks County Coroner J. Alfred Rigby in his investigation determined that the height was about five feet and weight about 130 pounds. The feet are small and the hands are also small, and the individual is described as full breasted.

Only four upper teeth remain, two laterals and two incisors. Two lower teeth are both canine.

There is a trephine hole in the back of the head above the upper left ear, assumed to have been made by a surgical tool. In the back of the head there is an egg-size hole also believed to have been done by a surgical instrument.

The skeleton was bare of clothing except for one stocking on the left leg and the stocking was rolled below the knee.

When found the skeleton was lying face down and the left arm is missing.

Death is believed to have occurred six or more months ago. All of the hair had disappeared as well as the flesh.

The skeleton was taken to the John Black funeral home, 314 Cedar street.

The skeleton was found by a college dog along the shore of the Delaware River near Freeland's Dam, Edgely. The dog was being walked by Fred Gould, Raymond Hook and Richard Hook, Edgely. Bristol Township Chief of Police Joseph Seader and Township officers were summoned and then in turn called Coroner A. J. Rigby, Cornwells Heights. The skeleton was lying face down on the shore just above the Edgely pumping station of the Bristol water system.

Brennan Quietly by Two Officers After Rushing Into Automobile After His Wife—Scuffle for Gun Ensues After One Officer is Dispatched to Secure Aid—Volume Control of Police Radio Knocked Out

A Bristol man died upon entering the Nazareth Hospital, Philadelphia, after being shot twice during a scuffle with police in front of his home here, early Sunday morning. The victim is John Brennan, 38, of 1416 Farragut avenue. He was the proprietor of Brennan's Hardware store at the above address and also conducted a sub-postoffice at the location.

At the time of the shooting Brennan and Bristol police officer John Sackville were wrestling for possession of the officer's service revolver.

Both bullets, of .38 caliber, entered the victim's left side.

Widow Tells Police That Husband Feared He Was Fatally Ill

HAD X-RAYS TAKEN

The four days preceding the tragedy which resulted in the fatal shooting of John Brennan, Farragut avenue hardware dealer and operator of a sub-postoffice, were apparently filled with premonitions and fears on the part of the victim, according to incidents which police say have been related by Mrs. Brennan.

Mrs. Brennan is said to have related to police here that her husband had expressed fear as early as last Wednesday that he was going to die. It is stated that Brennan had gone to Nazareth Hospital, Philadelphia, for X-rays last week, and insisted to his wife he believed he had tuberculosis. Mrs. Brennan tried to reassure her husband that his health was not in the condition he thought. He expressed the belief that he would die and started informing his wife, she claims, of various details of his business and passed along other information which he thought would be of value to her in case of his demise.

Mrs. Brennan told officers that her husband had made a will not more than 10 minutes before the shooting took place.

The wife of the victim also informed officers that her husband had insisted that she was "sicker" than he.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1951
NOT ENOUGH PENNIES
Against all copybook maxims, the slogan now is: "Don't save your pennies."
By legislation passed in 1864 U. S. pennies must contain 95 per cent copper, plus a 5 per cent mixture of tin and zinc, says the National Geographic Society.
At present it is estimated there are 18,367,792,533 pennies outstanding, which by no means indicates an equivalent number in actual circulation. Many are held by collectors and savers, and large numbers are concentrated in vending-machine and other big-scale operations.
Since the ratio of tin and zinc is not specified, the penny's tin content was reduced to a minimum soon after the United States entered World War II. An emergency issue of zinc-coated steel cents was struck in 1943, their composition determined by the necessity for conserving precious copper and other strategic metals.
So unpopular were the gray coins, however, that this minting was discontinued after that year, and many have been retired when turned in. Mutilated against further use as money, they have gone into scrap to make such things as rails, wire, and structural steel. Instead of steel, the mint was authorized to use expended brass shell cases as the raw material for one-cent pieces.
The first coin authorized by the U. S. Congress was a cent bearing the date 1787. A big pure-copper piece, it is known as the Fugio, or Franklin cent, because Benjamin Franklin is believed to have inspired its motto, "Mind your business."
Following the establishment of the official U. S. Mint in 1792, came the all-copper "Liberty" cents, turned out with numerous die variations. It bears the head of a woman and a liberty cap on the front; a chain or wreath on the reverse. These, too, were big coins.
It was not until 1857 that the now familiar small pennies were minted. The first ones were of Flying Eagle design and were retained only until 1858. Indian Head cents were issued from 1859 to 1909.
Before Congress established the present content of cents, Flying Eagle and Indian Head coins were made of 88 per cent copper and 12 per cent nickel. The resulting "white penny," paled by the nickel ingredient, has been of special interest to collectors.
The Treasury's latest and current cent, the Lincoln Head, was first struck in 1909. Pennies of that year, bearing the initials S (for the San Francisco Mint), and V.D.B. (for the initials of the designer, Victor D. Brenner) have the highest book value because of their relative scarcity. This scarcity came about when the designer's initials were removed soon after minting was started.
Perhaps if copper and other metals remain in critical supply, paper pennies may be printed, of 1-cent U. S. postage stamps, sans glue, may be substituted for the lowly copper.

TULLYTOWN—Tullytown is a healthy locality but there is one epidemic which has a terrible grasp over us all. It is the "get the mail" disease. The post office is besieged with demands for mail seemingly to a very unnecessary extent. Free delivery would never do for us for it would not compare in speed to our present system by which each family sends a special messenger to the office to meet every mail in addition to the growing custom of keeping one or two representatives in constant waiting there in case a letter happens to come by some sources other than the mail bag.

No expense will be incurred by the borough and the trolley company agrees to keep in repair the bridge and the approaches thereto on both sides for a distance of 30 feet.

At the annual meeting of the T. B. Harkins Foundry Company, held on last Thursday evening the following officers and directors were re-elected: President, Thomas B. Harkins; secretary and treasurer, James W. Brooks; directors, Thomas B. Harkins, George A. Shoemaker, John P. Stout, B. C. Foster, Deron Green. A dividend of 10 per cent on the capital stock was declared.

PROCLAMATION

Thanksgiving Day—Nov. 22, 1951

From the days of the early colonies, Americans have paused in the enjoyment of plenty to acknowledge thanks for the manifold blessings bestowed by Divine favor.

Thanksgiving Day originated in 1621 when the Pilgrims, after their first harvest, set aside a day to give thanks for an abundant crop, for freedom, and for safety. Today, 320 years later, reverent Americans give thanks for those same blessings, and many more conferred upon us by a generous God and a bountiful Nature.

This year Thanksgiving Day comes as a reassuring reminder that our lot is an unusually favored one. As Americans, we share privileges and rights enjoyed to so full an extent by no other nation. As Pennsylvanians, we share blessings and advantages virtually unmatched in any area of comparable size.

In Pennsylvania, 1951 has brought renewed evidence that God's beneficence has given us ample food supplies. It has been a year of bountiful harvests of many of our principal crops. Pennsylvania's bumper oats crop has been the largest in 31 years, with an all-time high yield per acre. Pennsylvania's cherry harvest has been twice as large as average, setting an all-time record. The yield per acre of our tobacco crop is the highest in ten years and the second highest on record. Despite the prolonged dry weather, which aided in reducing our potato crop to the smallest in 53 years, we were blessed with harvests of corn, wheat, barley, apples, peaches, pears, and grapes well above the ten-year average. These, too, are compelling reasons for thankfulness, especially at a time of food shortages in many parts of the world.

In Pennsylvania, 1951 also has been a year of high employment and income, and of expanding industry which will provide even more employment opportunities in the years ahead. These also are compelling reasons for gratitude and for expressions of reverent thankfulness.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John S. Fine, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 22, 1951, as a legal holiday and as a day of Thanksgiving in this Commonwealth. I call upon our people to observe the day in their homes and in their places of worship in humble and grateful remembrance of the blessings that the citizens of this great State are privileged to enjoy.

FURTHERMORE, I ask that the Flag of the United States be displayed from all appropriate places to symbolize our patriotic loyalty and devotion to the ideals of liberty, justice, and equal opportunity that America holds forth as an example to the world; and that the Flag of Pennsylvania be displayed as a token of our appreciation of the many blessings which residents of this Commonwealth enjoy.

GIVEN under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at the City of Harrisburg, this sixteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one, and of the Commonwealth the one hundred and seventy-sixth.

JOHN S. FINE,
Governor.

GERALD SMITH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

RECOVERED FUMBLE AIDS MORRISVILLE TO TAKE THE LEAD

MORRISVILLE, Nov. 19.—A recovered fumble in the last four minutes of play enabled Morrisville to take first place in the Lower Bucks County League as the Bulldogs beat Neshaminy, 6-0, here, Saturday.

The idle Bensalem team suffered the most by the Morrisville win as the Owls are now completely out of the Lower Bucks County race. The best the Owls can hope for now is a second place or a tie for second. Bristol must win the Thanksgiving day game with Morrisville to cop the championship, while Morrisville needs but a tie to win the crown.

It was Frank Gater who won the game for Morrisville against the Redskins. In the final quarter Gater bounced on a Neshaminy fumble in the end zone for a touchdown.

Morrisville had carried the ball from its 20-yard line to the Neshaminy three before losing the pigskin on downs. Al Hofmann went back a kick the ball out of the danger zone. The pass from center was a little low and got away from Hofmann with Gater recovering for the touchdown. The try for the extra point, a pass, failed.

PENNSBURY TO PLAY HAMILTON

FALLSINGTON, Nov. 19.—Pennsbury High and Hamilton High will close their 1951 football season tomorrow afternoon as they clash on the Robert Morris field, Morrisville. Opening kickoff will take place at three o'clock.

Pennsbury's record is 4 wins, 4 losses, and a tie. Hamilton, under the guidance of Barney Emil, has won three, lost three, and tied one. Pennsbury High will most likely be without the services of Don Doherty and Bob Coia, both linemen, who have both recently recovered from pneumonia.

ST. PATRICK SCORES 12 TO 6 VICTORY OVER ST. FRANCIS

BRIDGEPORT, Pa., Nov. 19.—St. Patrick's Catholic High School, of Norristown, scored a 12-6 victory over St. Francis Vocational School, of Edgington, here, yesterday.

The St. Francis team scored first in the initial quarter on a 55-yard pass, Ace McGinn to Gus DiBello. DiBello ran 45 yards after catching the pass.

St. Patrick knotted the score in the second quarter. Powell caught a pass on his 45 and ran to the 15 before being tackled from behind by DiBello. However, on the next play, Brennan tossed another pass to Powell for a TD.

The Norristown team scored again in the third quarter when Powell went over from the 2 to climax a 58-yard drive.

In the third period, St. Francis had the ball in St. Patrick's territory continually but could not get it over.

15 Persons Hurt in Auto Crashes in Lower Bucks

neth Kroll, Trenton avenue. Miss Mack suffered a possible fractured arm, abrasions and contusions of the right arm and leg.

At the time of the accident, Miss Mack was getting out of the car of her father, William Mack, in front of the Mack residence. Miss Mack was knocked down. She was taken to Nazareth Hospital where X-rays were taken and she then returned to her home here.

Eleven persons were hurt Saturday night in a crash of an auto and a bus of the Trenton-Philadelphia Coach Company on Route 1 at Snipes Corner, west of Morrisville.

Most seriously injured of the 11 was the driver of the convertible which figured in the crash, Frank J. Miller, 31, of 643 Osborn avenue, Morrisville, was reported in grave condition in Mercer Hospital.

He suffered a probable skull fracture, broken right leg, severe cuts of the left hand and body bruises.

Bus driver, Daniel BonFrancesco, 25, of 140 Thropp avenue, Trenton, N. J., said Miller's car, traveling east, towards Trenton, failed to make the sweeping left-hand curve.

BonFrancesco suffered a cut of the right leg.

The convertible bounced twice from the buffer type metal guard rail. Then it shot across the road and smashed into the left side of the bus with terrific impact. The convertible then whirled around and came to a stop broadside with the bus and headed towards Philadelphia.

The nine other persons injured in the jolting of the crash included the following from Trenton and vicinity:

Meyer Leimig, 53, 141 Lambertson street, bruises.

James R. Chester, 25, 314 North Montgomery street, bruises.

William T. Pearson, 45, 45 Fowler street, nose injury and bruises.

George Jackson, 29, laborer at Reading Railroad camp, West Trenton, back injury and bruise of right foot.

Mrs. Bertha Parsons, 261 Osborn avenue, Morrisville, bruises.

Mrs. Florence Newkirk, 43, also of 261 Osborn avenue, injured right knee and abrasions of mouth.

Mrs. Jennie Butler, 42, of Philadelphia, bruises.

Laurence Martino, 62, Woorburne, Pa., bruises.

Mrs. Betty Levison, 45, Yeadon, Pa., bruises of head and injured left ankle.

Miller was alone in his car, according to police Chief Franklin Kirby of Falls Township.

Last rites of the Catholic Church were given to Miller by the Rev. Charles Platt of the Blessed Sacrament Church at the bedside of the victim in Mercer Hospital.

The bus involved in the crash was a Philadelphia-bound coach. It departed from the Perry street terminal with about 20 passengers aboard at 7:20 p. m.

The victims were taken to the hospital by the Bucks County Rescue Squad, the Union Fire Company ambulance and two passing motorists.

Two persons were slightly injured in a three-car pileup on U. S. Route 1, east of Langhorne, at eight o'clock Saturday night.

The collision of the automobiles, all headed toward Trenton on the four-lane highway, occurred about two miles beyond the auto-bus crash at Snipes Corner earlier in the evening.

Injured were Mrs. Frances Rafferty, 45, of RD 2, Langhorne, nose bleed; Joseph Schillingford, 47, same address, head cut. He was a passenger in Mrs. Rafferty's car, police reported.

Falls Township police said

Francis Karavanic, 50, of Columbia, S. C., stopped his car on the paved portion of the highway. He planned to run across the road to see if there were accommodations at Moon's Tourists Cabins.

Karavanic's auto was struck from the rear by an auto driven by Charles Seeberger, 27, of Philadelphia. His car then crashed into a telephone pole. A top cross-arm was snapped off.

Mrs. Rafferty's car was the third in the collision. The three autos were badly damaged.

Radio Patrolmen Meszaros and Kish of the township police investigated.

Merchant Fatally Shot In Weapon Scuffle With Police

Brennan's arm into the air, the gun falling either to the floor or seat of the car. The two officers succeeded in quieting Brennan, and thinking he was "under control," Sackville instructed Chance to go to a telephone to secure aid, the volume control of the radio system in the police car being knocked out during the scuffle.

Chance crossed the street to seek access to a telephone, and at about that time Sackville is said to have attempted to pick up the gun to put in the holster. Brennan apparently had gotten out of the car in the meantime, and it is stated that the Brennan attacked Sackville, hitting the officer on the back of the head. Sackville tried to turn to get out of the car, and as the officer turned Brennan is said to have again struck him, this time near the left temple, and again on the chin. Sackville was somewhat dazed by the impact, and both men are said to have gotten hold of the weapon. Two shots went off, both striking Brennan in the left side. Chance, hearing the shots, called to Sackville to ask if he was alright, and on being assured that Sackville was O. K., Chance proceeded to get help.

Mrs. Brennan, seeing that her husband was wounded, secured the Brennan car which was standing in the driveway at the store, and police state that Sackville, Mrs. Brennan, Mrs. John McLaughlin, neighbor, and possibly Mr. McLaughlin, placed the injured man in the Brennan car. In the meantime Chance had also telephoned the Bristol Blood Donors to dispatch an ambulance.

"When Officer Farragali and I arrived at the scene," states Chief of Police Jones, "the two women had driven off with Brennan in the car."

A technical charge of involuntary manslaughter has been lodged against Sackville, and he has been released in his own recognizance. Sackville has been on the force about 10 to 12 years.

According to Mrs. McLaughlin, she was a witness about 3:30 o'clock, Sunday morning, when she heard Mrs. Brennan calling her. Answering the cry of "Emma, Emma," Mrs. McLaughlin hurried to the front windows of her second floor apartment, just over the Brennan hardware store. There, she states, she saw Mrs. Brennan standing in front of the store, Mrs. Brennan asking her to hurry down.

Hurriedly donning some clothing, Mrs. McLaughlin joined Mrs. Brennan, and the two women, with the injured man, drove to Nazareth Hospital, Philadelphia.

It was revealed in information given by Mrs. Brennan to police that her husband had attacked her just before she ran out of the house.

An autopsy will be held by the Philadelphia coroner this afternoon in Philadelphia at two o'clock. Bucks County Coroner J. Alfred Rigby and the Bucks County Coroner's physician, Dr. Fred Phillips, Quakertown, will assist.

Dardyn, the Brennans' 13-year-old daughter, and their only child, was away at the time. She had secured permission of her mother to remain at the home of a girl friend here in Bristol overnight Saturday.

Dardyn was not informed of the tragedy until late yesterday afternoon when her mother went to the home of the friend to take Dardyn home.

Mr. Brennan, who according to relatives had lived here about 10 years, came to Bristol from Gilbertnesday. Relatives and friends and members of the organizations with which he was affiliated, are invited to the Wm. I. Murphy Estate funeral home, 316 Jefferson avenue, at seven a. m. Solemn Requiem Mass will be sung in Holy Rosary R. C. Church, Mahanoy Plane, at 10 o'clock, and interment will be made in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Frackville. Friends may call Tuesday evening.

Miss Katharine Steele And J. S. Renninger Are Married

NEWTOWN, Nov. 19. —St. Luke's Episcopal Church here provided the setting for the marriage of Miss Katharine Frick Steele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart Steele, of Feasterville, on Saturday at four o'clock to Mr. John Snowden Renninger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis X. Renninger, Glenside.

The Rev. Edmund T. Sills performed the ceremony; with Mrs. Lota Curtiss Hogg, New Haven, Conn., at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in lime green tulle and tulle with fitted bodice, pelerin collar, three-quarter length sleeves, and a full skirt, longer than ballerina length. Her headpiece was a half-hat of matching tulle with short veil of illusion, and she carried green and white striped orchids and lily.

Miss Ellen Ann Steele, Feasterville, was maid of honor for her sister. Her gown was of tangerine tulle, made identical to that of the bride; and she wore a half hat of matching tulle. Her flowers were rust colored chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids included three sisters of the bridegroom, Miss Constance Renninger, Miss Elisabeth Renninger, Glenside; Mrs. Mitchell Stead, Abington, and Mrs. John Stewart Steele, Jr., Feasterville, the latter a sister-in-law of the bride. They all wore moss green tulle gowns, made as the other members of the wedding party, with matching half hats and all carried tangerine colored chrysanthemums.

Mr. Donald R. Kelley, Glenside, was best man; and ushers were Messrs John S. Steele, Jr., Feasterville, brother of the bride; Howard E. Rohlin, Glenside; John M. Nelson, Overbrook, and F. Kent Renninger, Glenside, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Steele, the mother of the bride, chose a gown of dark green tulle, carnelian accessories, and wore a corsage of carnelian dyed carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige ensemble, dark brown accessories, and she wore a corsage of brown carnations.

A reception was held at "Atlanta Farm", the Steele home, at Feasterville, after which Mr. and Mrs. Renninger left for a honeymoon, motorizing through the south. They will be at home in Philadelphia, after Dec. 1st.

The bride is an alumna of Southampton high school and the Moore Institute of Art, Philadelphia. The bridegroom graduated from Cheltenham high school, the University of Pennsylvania and the Law school of the same university, Philadelphia.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Harold C. Koch,
S. T. M., pastor Bristol
Methodist Church

"Happy is that man who condemneth not himself by that which he alloweth." (Paul to the Romans, Chapter 14, v. 22).

This excellent advice by the great missionary apostle to the Roman Christians who lived daily midst the temptations to follow the coarse and sinful pleasures of their pagan neighbors is a most excellent advice for every Christian today!

Gracious God, grant that directed by the way of our Lord, and empowered by thy Spirit, I may be able to think and to do that which is good in Thy sight, to the enrichment of the society in which I live and the glory of Thy name. Amen.
